Sharing Love

Become a Stephen Minister

Stephen Ministry has been serving FPC since 2008. Our ministry is a blessing to individuals, our congregation, and to the individual Stephen Ministers. We will be starting a training class in January 2022. Do you have a heart that cares for others, do you reach out when you know someone is stressed? If you do, prayerfully consider becoming a Stephen Minister. We will help you develop skills to provide God's love and support in difficult times. Applications will be available in mid-October.

Prayer Shawl Ministry Tuesday, 11:00am, in the Library

No Crochet or Knitting experience needed.
For more information please contact:
Pam Mikkola at (863) 291-4182.

FPC Text Messaging...

Text messaging is another way we would like to communicate with you and we need your permission to receive our text.

To receive text messages from FPC add the number "22300" to your cell phone contacts and text the word: ALERT to #22300

For assistance, please call the office (863) 422-3334 and ask to speak with Josselyn.

You will Be Missed!

Don Cruley has worked and served FPC for 15 years. Don and his wife (Karen) were members at FPC, since 2006. Don retired as of October 4. Don and his wife have relocated to North Carolina, to be closer to their family.

A Note from Don to FPC,

I would like to Thank the leaders of FPC for letting me have the honor of serving our Lord and caring for the facility. To me it was never a job, it was a ministry, my way of serving our Lord.

Keep both Don and Karen in your prayers.

Zoom Life Group

Resuming Tuesday, October 12, 6:30pm

We are studying the David Jeremiah series titled “Overcomer”. Contact Paula Rose at (407) 222-7552 with your email address or write the information on the back of your communication card. The books for this group are $8.00.

New Members Class...Coming Soon!

For information about the vision and ministry of FPC as well as consider becoming a Covenant Partner (New Member), please indicate this on the back of your communication card, of your intent to come to the class.
